

TRAVEL INSURANCE STAR RATINGS

IN THIS REPORT We research & rate:

- 49 travel insurance brands
- 103 comprehensive travel insurance policies
- 63 domestic travel insurance

WHY TAKE THE GAMBLE?

We're an adventurous lot; in the year ended June 2013, Australian residents made a record 8.4 million short-term trips overseas – nearly three times the numbers from ten years earlier. New Zealand is our most popular destination, followed by Indonesia, the USA, Thailand and the UK. We also love travelling domestically, with the Australian Trade Commission quoting annual spending by Australians of approximately $43 billion per year. Travelling can certainly refresh your mind, body and soul – but without the right travel insurance it can also drain your wallet!

Typically, a travel insurance policy will provide an amount of cover for the following:

- Medical expenses from personal injury or illness
- Loss or theft of goods
- Disruptions to your travel plans (e.g. a cancelled or diverted flight, itinerary change due to illness)

To avoid your holiday becoming an expensive horror story, find a travel insurance policy that offers proper coverage in the areas that matter to you. In this annual star ratings comparison, we look at the two most common types of travel insurance policies:

- Comprehensive International – the all-in-one package favoured by most travelers.
- Domestic – covers only theft, accident and loss, no medical coverage within Australia.

TAILOR COVER TO YOUR NEEDS

Travel insurance policies differ, so it's important to match up the right type of policy for your individual needs. As a start, some questions you should consider are:

- Do you have any particular items of value that require extra cover?
- Do you have any pre-existing medical conditions?
- Does any member of your close family have any pre-existing medical conditions that could potentially impact on your holiday plans?
- What dollar limits are you willing to accept on claims, either for individual items or as a whole?
- What proof will you need in order to make a claim?
- What paperwork do you need to take with you on your holiday?

The above questions will assist you in deciding on the level of cover you will need and also whether there are any additional items you may need to cover or seek clarification on from the insurer before your trip.

The cost of travel insurance is based on the type of cover requested, the age of the insured, the destination of travel, length of stay and any pre-existing medical conditions. Insurers will generally provide policy options and the ability for customer to decide or request different excess levels, dollar limits for claims and the specific inclusion of valuables and other variables.

BE AWARE OF EXCLUSIONS

It's important to realise that no travel policy will cover you for every single thing that might go wrong while you're away. It is essential to read the entire travel insurance policy document and in particular to be aware of any exclusions that may apply. Some common exclusions include:

- Hazardous pursuits. Activities such as motorcycling, skiing, scuba diving, bungee-jumping and hang-gliding may be excluded from the standard policy. These can often be added for an additional premium.
- High risk countries. It's important to check the government's Smart Traveller website (www.smarttraveller.gov.au) for the travel advisory status of your destination. Countries and areas deemed "do not travel" may not be covered under your policy.
- Risky behavior. Any injury or loss caused by reckless behavior while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, except a drug prescribed to you by a medical adviser and taken in accordance with their instructions, will probably be excluded from cover.
- Pre-existing medical conditions. Even conditions which have been undiagnosed but for which you have experienced symptoms are often not covered. It's also important to disclose the pre-existing conditions of your close relatives, if this may impact on your travel.
- High-value items. Many policies will have a dollar limit claimable for each item; this dollar limit may not cover the replacement cost.
- Loss of items left unattended. Be aware of the definition of "unattended" in your policy of choice. Leaving your wallet and keys wrapped in a towel on the beach while you take a quick swim, leaving belongings hidden in a shared room or losing valuables from your checked-in luggage may all be excluded from cover.
- Notification period. A policy may specify that an insured event needs to be notified to them within a specified timeframe (for example 24 hours). It's important to be aware of the notification period and stick to it

WHAT DOES IT COST?

There is far more to travel insurance than simply price – but the cost of the cover is always the attention grabbing item! Our analysis found average premiums for some of the most popular destinations to be:

Country*	Average overall travel insurance premium (singles)	Average overall travel insurance premium (couples)	Average overall travel insurance premium (family)
Australia	$86.00	$165.00	$171.00
China	$144.00	$273.00	$282.00
Bali	$125.00	$238.00	$244.00
Thailand	$142.00	$268.00	$277.00
UK	$147.00	$281.00	$289.00
France	$149.00	$283.00	$292.00

WHO PROVIDES OUTSTANDING VALUE?

Not all travellers are the same and not all have the same requirements. CANSTAR look at three common traveller profiles:

- A single person;
- A couple, based on two adults who travel together;
- A family consisting of two adults and their two children.

CANSTAR then take the sample travellers to different destinations to compare which travel insurance policies offered better value in different parts of the world. Destinations assessed are:

- Asia (China, Bali, Thailand)
- Australia (domestic travel insurance policies)
- Europe (UK, France)
- Pacific (New Zealand, Fiji)
- Worldwide (Brazil, South Africa, USA)

While price will always be a prime driver of travel insurance, the product is not a one-size-fits-all so it's important to get the cover you need, not just the cheapest premium. To determine true value, we looked for the right balance between price and 102 product features in each profile. For domestic travel insurance, we balanced price with a lesser number of features. For example, hospital cover is excluded on domestic insurance as it is not needed within Australia. Details of our methodology follow the ratings section of this report.

This year there are two winners in the outstanding value – international travel insurance category and two winners in the outstanding value – domestic travel insurance category. The logos are shown below and a summary of their winning features is contained on the following page. We congratulate all four winners of our annual travel insurance star rating awards.

TRAVEL INSURANCE STAR RATINGS

What are the CANSTAR Travel Insurance Star Ratings?

CANSTAR Travel Insurance star ratings involve a sophisticated rating methodology, unique to CANSTAR that compares Travel Insurance products in Australia. CANSTAR star ratings provide a transparent analysis of a shortlist of Travel Insurance products, enabling consumers to narrow their search to products that have been independently assessed and ranked.

The results are reflected in a consumer-friendly 5-star concept, with 5 stars signifying outstanding value offered by the product.

What types of products are evaluated by CANSTAR Travel Insurance Ratings?

CANSTAR rates a number of international and domestic travel insurance policies covering the following profile types and destinations:

Who?

Single

Couple

Family

Where?

China
Bali
Thailand

Europe

UK
France

Pacific

For institutions to be eligible for the international travel insurance star ratings, the policy must be a comprehensive policy. This means they must meet certain basic feature requirements in order to be included in the ratings. The requirements are as follows:

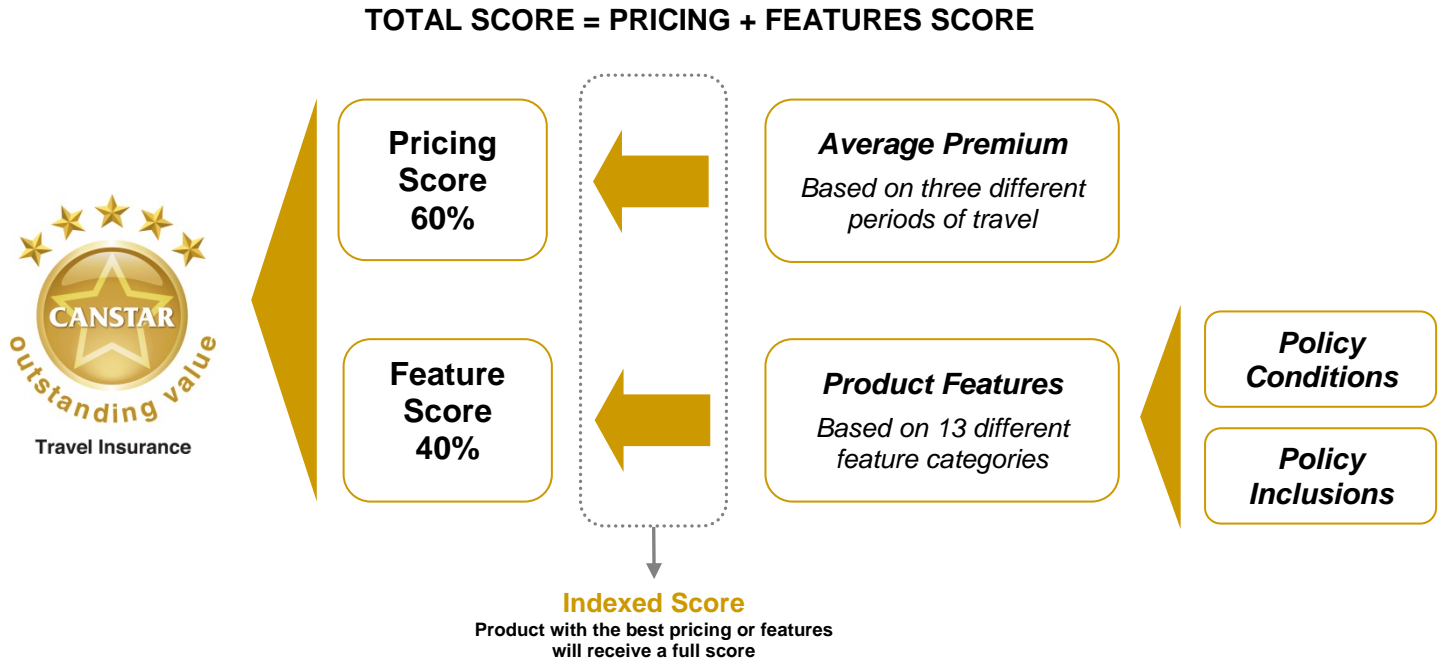

- Overseas Medical and Hospital Cover
- Repatriation and Evacuation Services
- Luggage and Personal Effects
- Cancellation fees and loss of deposit

How are the CANSTAR Travel Insurance Star Ratings calculated?

Each Travel Insurance product reviewed for the CANSTAR Travel Insurance star ratings is awarded points for its comparative pricing and for the array of positive features attached to the product. Points are aggregated to achieve a Pricing score and a Feature score.

To arrive at the total score CANSTAR applies a weight against the Pricing and Feature scores. This weight will vary from profile to profile and will reflect the relative importance of either costs or features in determining the best product. This method can be summarised as:

Pricing Score

The pricing score for each profile is based on guidelines outlined below. Quotes within the profile types and destinations were used to determine the minimum average premium in each profile. This was then indexed against each policy premium and weighted by its 60% weighting to determine final pricing score.

Profile types

Quotes were based on the three profile types: Single, Couple and Family. These travelers were based on:

- 40 years old adult/s
- If family, two 15 year old children
- NSW State of residence

Travel Period

The travel periods used to find the average premium to China, Bali, Thailand, U.K, France, USA and Brazil are as follows:

Profile	Period of travel	Departing date	Returning date
Days	10 days	1-Aug-2013	10-Aug-2013
Weeks	21 days	1-Aug-2013	21-Aug-2013
Months	42 days	1-Aug-2013	11-Sep-2013

The travel periods used to find the average premium to Australia, Fiji and New Zealand are as follows:

Profile	Period of travel	Departing date	Returning date
Days	4 days	1-Aug-2013	04-Aug-2013
Short Holiday	10 days	1-Aug-2013	10-Aug-2013
Long Holiday	21 days	1-Aug-2013	21-Aug-2013

Excesses

To ensure fair comparison between providers, premiums were quoted at the standard excess amount of $100. For policies that did not have the option of $100 standard excess, premiums were adjusted based on industry-based actuarial data.

Feature Score

Features are split into different sub-categories and which are allocated appropriate weights. Based on the points received, each individual policy receives a total feature score. The total score is then weighted against the weights provided in the table below for their respective profile feature score. The feature score is then indexed and weighted by its 40% weighting to provide the final feature score.

What is the CANSTAR Travel Insurance Award?

In conjunction with the travel star ratings, CANSTAR has awarded two separate awards to the insurers who provide outstanding value in the following categories:

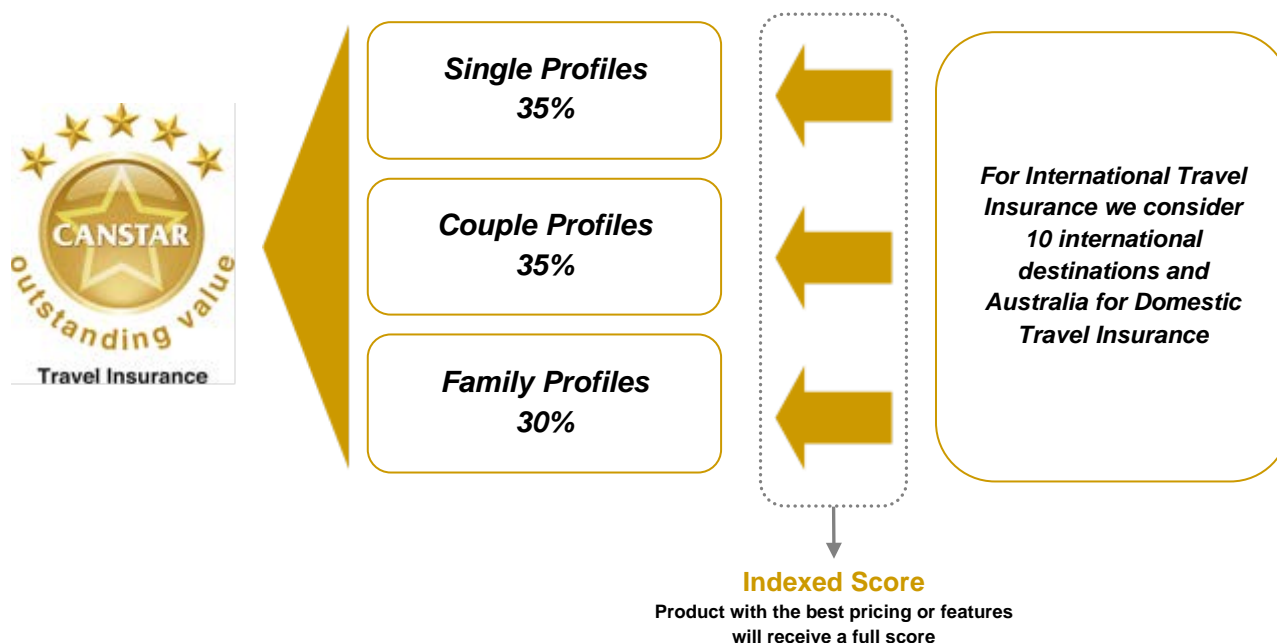

These are awarded to the insurers that provide the best combination of products across the travel insurance star ratings profiles, as well as excelling in a range of travel destinations and features. The Award aims to give recognition to those insurers who offer quality products with desirable features to travelers in a particular category.

For institutions to be eligible for the overall awards, they must meet certain minimum requirements. The requirements are as follows:

- 24 hour helpline available
- Ability to extend cover while travelling
- $25 Million + overseas medical and hospital cover (international only)
- $5 Million + cover for repatriation and evacuation services (international only)

How is the CANSTAR Travel Insurance Award calculated?

The maximum total score of each country profile is taken from each insurer and is indexed against the maximum possible top score in each country profile. This produces an indexed score which is then weighted against the profile type weights provided in the methodology tree below. Each of the profile type scores is then summed to determine the final award winner in both categories.

How are the stars awarded?

The total score received for each profile ranks the products. The stars are then awarded based on the distribution of the scores according to the following guidelines. As you can see, only the products that obtain a score in the top 10% of the of the score distribution receive a 5 star rating.

The results are reflected in a consumer-friendly 5-star concept, with 5 stars denoting an outstanding product.

Does CANSTAR rate all products available in the market?

We endeavour to include the majority of product providers in the market and to compare the product features most relevant to consumers in our ratings. However this process is not always possible and it may be that not every product in the market is included in the rating nor every feature compared that is relevant to you.

How often are products reviewed for star ratings purposes?
